RAMS PARTNER WITH L.A. KITCHEN TO PREPARE MEALS FOR COMMUNITY MEMBERS IN NEED

WHAT:

The Los Angeles Rams will visit L.A. Kitchen to prepare and assemble nutritious meals for those in need in the community. L.A. Kitchen believes that neither food nor people should ever go to waste. By reclaiming healthy, local food that would otherwise be discarded, training men and women who are unemployed for jobs, and providing healthy meals to fellow citizens, L.A. Kitchen empowers, nourishes, and engages the community.

The event is part of the Rams' monthly Day of Service program. Each month, the Rams front office staff takes time out of the office to volunteer with local non-profits. During the team's first year back home in Los Angeles, Rams employees provided more than 2,000 hours of community service and impacted eight local non-profits and 12 schools through the Day of Service. Since January of 2017, the team has volunteered with 12 local non-profits and 26 schools through the Day of Service program.
