RAMS CLOSE PRESEASON WITH TRIP TO MIAMI

WR Brian Quick

The St. Louis Rams wrap up their 2014 preseason slate Thursday as they visit the Miami Dolphins at Sun Life Stadium.

Thursday's game marks the fifth preseason meeting between the Rams and Dolphins with the series tied 2-2. The last preseason meeting came in 2006. That year, the Rams also closed out their preseason in South Florida. The Rams and Dolphins also met in the 2001 Hall of Fame Game. In the regular season, Miami leads the all-time series, 10-2.

The Rams are looking to finish 2-2 on the preseason after they picked up a 33-14 win in Cleveland last Saturday night. The Rams have finished 1-3 in each of the last two preseasons. WR Brian Quick had 47 receiving yards and found the end zone to spark the St. Louis victory over the Browns. WR Chris Givens added 94 receiving yards, including a 75-yard touchdown catch.

TOP OF THE CLASS

During the 2013 offseason, the Rams added veteran offensive tackle Jake Long as an unrestricted free agent.

Long joined the Rams after spending his first five seasons with the Dolphins, who had made him the top overall pick in the 2008 NFL Draft.

When Long arrived in St. Louis, he teamed up with DE Chris Long, who was the second overall pick in the same class as the former Michigan All-American.

The transaction made the Rams the first team since the 1992 Colts to have both the first and second picks from the same draft on their roster at the same time. The Colts owned the top two selections in the 1992 draft and used them to take DE Steve Emtman and LB Quinten Coryatt.

TOUCHDOWN TAVON

The Rams moved up to the eighth spot in the 2013 draft in order to select dynamic playmaker Tavon Austin, and he provided a big-play boost for the St. Louis offense as a rookie.

Austin finished his first NFL campaign with 40 catches in 13 games and scored six total touchdowns - four receiving, one rushing and one via punt return.

On the third play of the Rams' Week 12 win over Chicago, Austin took a pitch from QB Kellen Clemens, pivoted to reverse field and raced 65-yards for a touchdown. He also had a 56-yard run against Arizona that set up a Zac Stacy touchdown.

WR Tavon Austin

In the process, Austin became the first player in NFL history with a 95-yard punt return for touchdown, 80-yard touchdown reception and 65-yard rushing score in the same season.

In Week 10 in Indianapolis, Austin became the first Ram since 2008 to score three touchdowns in a game. He became just the third rookie in NFL history to score three touchdowns of 55 yards or more in a game.

Austin caught two passes - a 57-yard bomb for a touchdown and a short crossing pattern that resulted in an 81-yard touchdown. He also returned a punt 98 yards for a score. He became the first player in NFL history to return a punt 95 yards for a touchdown and have a 55-yard touchdown catch. With 314 all-purpose yards, Austin turned in the second-best single-game performance in team history.

For his efforts, Austin was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week and NFL Rookie of the Week. He was also named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month for November.

BIG CATCH BRITT

The Rams didn't make a ton of moves in veteran free agency this spring, but they've got big expectations for one player they did bring in this offseason.

WR Kenny Britt's sixth NFL season will be his first in St. Louis. He spent his first five professional campaigns with the Tennessee Titans, where he played three seasons under Rams Head Coach Jeff Fisher.

Britt's best season came in 2010 when he caught nine touchdown passes for the Titans. For his career, Britt averages 15.6 yards per catch, and the Rams hope his big-play pedigree will help give their offense a boost.

WR Kenny Britt

In addition to what he's brought on the field, Britt's veteran presence has been a welcomed one to the young receiver group. His experience is evident. In five seasons, Britt has 19 career touchdown catches. The other five receivers who are expected to be a part of the Rams offense this season - Tavon Austin, Chris Givens, Austin Pettis, Brian Quick and Stedman Bailey - have a combined 19 career receiving scores.

COMMODORE'S QUEST

Rams RB Zac Stacy didn't crack the starting lineup until Week 5 last season, but he still turned in one of the best rookie campaigns by an NFL back in 2013, and it was one of the top by a rookie in Rams history.

In the team's Week 14 contest at Arizona, Stacy passed Ron Waller for the third most rushing yards by a rookie in Rams history. Waller gained 716 yards in 1955, and Stacy rushed for 973 in 2013.

In his first 12 NFL starts, Stacy rushed for 969 yards, including back-to-back 100-yard games in the Weeks 8 & 9 and Weeks 15 &16. He also contributed 26 receptions for 121 yards and a touchdown in that span.

RB Zac Stacy

Stacy narrowly missed becoming the third rookie in Rams history to gain 1,000 yards on the ground. Eric Dickerson (1,808) and Jerome Bettis (1,429) are the two backs that have accomplished the feat.

Last April, the Rams traded two draft picks to move back into the fifth round and select Stacy. Over the course of the last 12 games, Stacy ranked among the NFL's best runners.

| Most Rushing Yards, Weeks 5-17 | Yards |
|---|---|
| 1. LeSean McCoy, PHI | 1,139 |
| 2. Eddie Lacy, GB | 1,127 |
| 3. Ryan Mathews, SD | 1,029 |
| 4. Matt Forte, CHI | 1,019 |
| 5. Jamaal Charles, KC | 998 |
| 6. Alfred Morris, WAS | 979 |
| 7. Zac Stacy, STL | 969 |
| 8. Marshawn Lynch, SEA | 949 |

ROOKIES ON THE RUN

In 2013, NFL rookies combined for 14 100-yard rushing performances. The Rams were responsible for one-third of those.

Zac Stacy accomplished the feat four times, include twice in back-to-back weeks. Benny Cunningham (109 yards on just 13 carries vs. Chicago) also reached the century mark earlier this season.

In Week 12 against Chicago, the Rams narrowly missed having two 100-yard rookies in the same game, as Stacy had 87 rushing yards when he exited with an injury. WR Tavon Austin also provided a 65-yard run to give St. Louis 261 yards rushing from three rookies in the victory. In addition, rookie WR Stedman Bailey scored on a 27-yard run in the team's win over Tampa Bay, giving the Rams four different rookies with a rushing touchdown this season.

RUSHING ROBERT

A year ago, Rams DE Robert Quinn put together one of the best seasons among pass rushers in team history, and for his efforts he was named a Pro Bowl starter and First-Team All-Pro.

Quinn's 19.0 sacks were second best in the NFL this season, just a half sack off of league leader Robert Mathis (19.5). Quinn also finished second to Mathis in forced fumbles, as Quinn had seven to Mathis' eight.

His 19.0 sacks set a new franchise record, topping Kevin Carter's 17.0 in 1999. Quinn had at least one sack in 11 of 16 games this season, and he had five multi-sack games, including three contests in which he recorded 3.0 sacks.

Coaches credited Quinn with 36 pressures and 33 hits on the season. Two of his forced fumbles resulted in touchdowns - his own 31-yard return vs. Chicago and a 45-yard return by Chris Long in a win over Indianapolis.

Quinn was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week following a Week 1 win over Arizona in which he recorded three sacks and two forced fumbles.

In Week 12, Quinn sealed the Rams victory over Chicago when he sacked Josh McCown, forced a fumble and recovered the loose ball. He raced 31 yards for his first NFL touchdown to complete the play.

In addition to his pass-rushing prowess, Quinn improved his play against the run this season. Coaches credited Quinn with 18 tackles for loss, the most among all Rams.

| 2013 NFL Sack Leaders | Sacks |
|---|---|
| 1. Robert Mathis, IND | 19.5 |
| 2. Robert Quinn, STL | 19.0 |
| 3. Greg Hardy, CAR | 15.0 |
| 4. Mario Williams, BUF | 13.0 |
| 4. Cameron Jordan, NO | 12.5 |

BEST IN CLASS

DE Robert Quinn

For teams in need of impact pass rushers, the 2011 NFL Draft was certainly the place to find one.

In the top 16 picks, there were seven "front seven" players selected. Six of them have at least 19 career sacks, and five of them have at least 30.

With the 14th pick, the Rams were fortunate to snag DE Robert Quinn, who boasts 34.5 career sacks. Quinn came off the board after Von Miller (35 sacks), Aldon Smith (42) and J.J. Watt (36.5), and each player has made a name for himself.

Quinn certainly stood out among his peers in 2013 as he led the NFC with 19.0 sacks. Since the start of the 2012 season, only Watt has more sacks than Quinn.

| Most Sacks Since Start of 2012 | Sacks |
|---|---|
| 1. J.J. Watt, HOU* | 31.0 |
| 2. Robert Quinn, STL* | 29.5 |
| 3. Aldon Smith, SF* | 28.0 |
| 4. Robert Mathis, IND | 27.5 |
| 5. Greg Hardy, CAR | 26.0 |

*2011 First Round Pick

DYNAMIC DUO

Look around the NFL and you'd be hard pressed to find a pair of defensive ends better than the one the Rams boast in Chris Long and Robert Quinn.

While Quinn set a new franchise record with 19.0 sacks last season, Long posted 8.5 of his own, narrowly missing his third-consecutive season in double digits.

In addition to sacking the opposing quarterback, Quinn and Long consistently impacted the opponents' passing games with the rush. According to coaches' grades, the duo combined for 75 pressures and 53 quarterback hits last season.

As a team, the Rams have been among the best in the NFL at getting to the quarterback in recent years. Since 2010, St. Louis has 187 sacks, which is the most among all NFL clubs during that time period.

In 2013, Long and Quinn's combined 27.5 was the most among any pair of teammates in the NFL.

Most Sacks By a Pair of Teammates, 2013

|  | Sacks |
|---|---|
| 1. R. Quinn & C. Long, STL | 27.5 |
| 2. G. Hardy & C. Johnson, CAR | 26.0 |
| 3. R. Mathis & J. Freeman, IND | 25.0 |
| 4. C. Jordan & J. Gallete, NO | 24.5 |
| 5. M. Williams & K. Williams, BUF | 23.5 |

MEET ME AT THE QB

The Rams have a new record holder for sacks in a season. Robert Quinn broke Kevin Carter's 14-year-old franchise record in Week 16 when he reached 18.0 on the season.

Since the team moved to St. Louis in 1995, only four Rams have recorded 13 sacks in a season. Quinn joined the group last year and worked his way to the top of the list.

Carter posted an NFL-best 17.0 sacks for the Super Bowl champion Rams in 1999. Carter was named to his first Pro Bowl that season, something Quinn did as well in 2013.

DE Robert Quinn

Most Sacks by a Ram in a Season Since 1995

|  | Sacks |
|---|---|

MAN IN THE MIDDLE

If you want to find Rams MLB James Laurinaitis on the football field, one can often simply follow the ball because the fifth-year pro seems to always be around it.

Laurinaitis finished the 2013 season with 144 tackles, his fifth 100-tackle season in as many years in the NFL. His toughness and leadership were key to a Rams defense that finished in the top 10 against the run for the first time since 2001.

Laurinaitis has proven to be a valuable defender against both the run and the pass. He recorded a career-high 3.5 sacks last year and six tackles for loss. He also posted two interceptions and eight pass breakups. Laurinaitis recovered two fumbles as well.

Since 2009, only three linebackers - DeAndre Levy, Paul Posluszny and Sean Lee - have more interceptions than Laurinaitis' nine. Laurinaitis, due in part to his ability to play the run and pass at a high level, rarely comes off the field.

Teammates voted Laurinaitis their Carl Ekern Spirit of the Game Award winner for 2013. A day before the 2012 opener, Laurinaitis signed a new five-year contract with the Rams. After the deal was finished, Rams C.O.O. Kevin Demoff said of Laurinaitis, "I think there is no player who embodies what we want on and off the field more than James Laurinaitis."

Linebacker James Laurinaitis reached the 100-tackle mark for a fifth-consecutive season and posted a career high 3.5 sacks as he manned the center of the St. Louis defense.

BROCKERS BRINGING IT

The Rams finished ninth in the NFL in run defense in 2013, and DT Michael Brockers was a key factor in that ranking.

In his second NFL season, Brockers led all Rams defensive linemen with 75 tackles. He had a pair of two-sack games this season and finished with a career-high 5.5 sacks on the year. He also added 13 quarterback pressures and 15 quarterback hits. In addition, coaches credited Brockers with eight tackles for loss.

As a rookie in 2012, Brockers was named to the Pro Football Writers of America/ Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie team.

DT Michael Brockers

In 29 career games, Brockers now has 9.5 sacks, which ranks among the best in comparison with the defensive linemen drafted in the first round in 2012.

Most Sacks, Defensive Linemen Drafted in 1st Round, 2012

| | Career Sacks |

| 1. Chandler Jones, NE | 17.5 |
| 2. Quinton Coples, NYJ | 10.0 |
| 3. Michael Brockers, STL | 9.5 |
| 4. Fletcher Cox, PHI | 8.5 |
| 5. Shea McClellin, CHI | 6.5 |

LONG ON TALENT

DE Chris Long

Whether he's sacking the quarterback or chasing him down, Rams DE Chris Long continues to make an impact in St. Louis' pass defense.

Long recorded sacks in each of the teams' final two games last year to give him 8.5 on the 2013 season. He also had 39 QB pressures and 20 QB hits. Coaches credited Long with seven tackles for loss on the year. In a Week 10 win over the Colts, Long scored his first career touchdown when he recovered an Andrew Luck fumble and returned it 45 yards.

Long now has 50.5 career sacks. He finished the 2012 campaign with 11.5 sacks, which tied him for ninth in the NFL in the category last season. The former second-overall pick had a breakout season in 2011 when he finished the year with 13.0 sacks, which ranked seventh in the NFL.

Long and his father Howie, a Hall of Fame defensive end who played for the Raiders, are one of just two father-son combos to each record 10 or more sacks in a season. Clay Matthews II, a former Browns linebacker, and Green Bay's Clay Matthews III are the other.

In July of 2012, Long signed a contract extension that will keep him at the heart of the Rams defense for years to come.

JACK RABBIT GOES HUNTING

Although a back injury limited his work in practice late in the season, Rams CB Janoris Jenkins enjoyed a strong finish to his second NFL campaign.

Jenkins, who is nicknamed Jackrabbit, led the Rams with 18 pass breakups. In the team's Week 16 win over the Buccaneers, Jenkins played a key role in limiting Tampa Bay to just 111 net passing yards.

In 2012, Jenkins turned in one of the best seasons by a rookie corner in NFL history. With three interceptions returned for touchdowns in 2012, Jenkins tied the NFL rookie record in the category. He shares the mark with Hall of Famers Ronnie Lott and Lem Barney.

CB Janoris Jenkins

In addition to his three interception returns, Jenkins also returned a fumble for a score. He's the only rookie in team history to score four defensive touchdowns, and he led the entire NFL in the category in 2012.

Jenkins hails from a hotbed of NFL talent. When it comes to producing NFL players, few places in the country can rival "The Muck." He and 49ers WR Anquan Boldin are two of more than 20 current or former NFL players who hail from the Pahokee, Fla. area.

Jenkins and fellow 2012 draft classmate Trumaine Johnson each have five career interceptions, which puts them among the best cornerbacks in their class.

VERY SPECIAL TEAMS

The Rams excelled in nearly every facet of the kicking game last season, thanks in large part to their core of young special teams players.

The average starting field position for St. Louis opponents following kickoffs was their own 20.1, which was the third best total in the NFL.

Opponents averaged just 2.6 yards per punt return against the Rams, tops in the NFL last season, while P Johnny Hekker set a new NFL record for net punting average.

In Weeks 15 and 16, the Rams became the first team since 1960 to go consecutive games without allowing a single return yard on either kickoff or punt returns. St. Louis extended the streak to a third week as Seattle had a total of negative-2 yards in Week 17.

LB Ray Ray Armstrong

The Rams' coverage units were anchored by rookie LB Ray Ray Armstrong, who led the team with 12 special teams tackles. Rookies Daren Bates, Brandon McGee, Cody Davis and Stedman Bailey played key roles on the coverage units, and Tavon Austin anchored the return game.

GREG THE LEG

While Greg Zuerlein may not have drawn the attention in his second NFL season that he did in his first, the Rams' kicker somewhat quietly put together a stellar sophomore campaign.

Zuerlein made 12 consecutive field goal attempts to close the season. He was perfect the last seven weeks and finished 26-of-28 on field goals in 2013.

K Greg Zuerlein

Of his last 14 kickoffs, 13 went for touchbacks and the other was a perfectly-placed onside kick that was recovered by WR Stedman Bailey.

In the process, Zuerlein became the most accurate kicker in team history. He's now 49-of-59 for his career, good for a mark of 83.05 percent.

As a rookie, Zuerlein made seven field goals from 50 yards or more. In the win over San Francisco, he broke the franchise record for 50+ yard field goals in a season. Among Zuerlein's accomplishments through his first two seasons:

- With seven field goals of 50 yards or more, Zuerlein owns the team record in the category and ranks second all-time among NFL rookies.

- Kicked the longest field goal by a rookie in league history (60 yds.).

- Broke the franchise record for longest field goal (60 yds.) and owns three of the four longest field goals in Rams history.

- Became the first kicker in league history to make a 50-plus and 60-plus yard field goal in the same game.

- Made his first 14 attempts this season and made his last 12.

- Ranks first in franchise history in career accuracy, 83.05 percent.

JOHNNY ON THE SPOT

Rams P Johnny Hekker had one of the best seasons by a punter in NFL history in 2013. For his efforts, Hekker became the first Rams punter since 1985 (Dale Hatcher) to be named to the Pro Bowl. Like Hatcher, Hekker also earned First-Team All-Pro honors.

The honors came after Hekker recorded the highest single-season net average (44.2) in NFL history. His 46.3 gross average was 10th in the league and was the fourth best single-season total in Rams history.

Opponents averaged just 2.6 yards per return against the Rams, the best total in the NFL this season. He had just four touchbacks in 78 punts and placed 19 inside the opponents' 20-yard line.

P Johnny Hekker

Hekker joined the Rams as an undrafted rookie free agent in 2012. He finished his first NFL campaign with a 45.8-yard gross average and a net average of 39.9 yards per attempt. Both of those numbers are the fourth best for a season in Rams history.

WHAT'S COOK-IN'?

In his first year in St. Louis, Jared Cook set a new record for most receiving yards in a season by a Rams tight end.

Cook led the Rams in both receptions (51) and receiving yards (671). Teammate Lance Kendricks set the previous mark for St. Louis tight ends last year with 519 yards. Cook bested that number and then topped the all-time franchise record held by Mike Barber (657 in 1983).

In his Rams debut, Cook caught seven passes for 141 yards and two touchdowns in the team's Week 1 win. His 141 yards are the most by a tight end in a single game in franchise history. Cook broke a record previously held by Pete Holohan, who had 126 yards on Dec. 11, 1988 against Atlanta.

Cook's Week 1 performance was his second-highest single-game total of his career. He had 169 in a 2011 game against Jacksonville. Cook's 169 yards are a Titans single-game record for a tight end as well.

When Rams Head Coach Jeff Fisher was in Tennessee, he thought so highly of Cook that he traded a future second-round draft pick in order to move up and select the South Carolina tight end in the third round.
HE'S A WINNER

With seven wins in 2013, Rams Head Coach Jeff Fisher has won 156 regular season games during his 18-plus seasons as an NFL head coach.

Fisher is among the winningest head coaches of his era. Among active head coaches, Fisher is third in career wins, trailing only Bill Belichick and Tom Coughlin.

With the Rams' victory over New Orleans in Week 15, Fisher passed Hall of Famer Joe Gibbs for 16th on the NFL's all-time wins list.

ON THE WAY UP

Led by Offensive Coordinator Brian Schottenheimer, the Rams averaged 21.8 points per game last season. Their point total marked the team's highest average since the 2006 season when the Rams scored 22.9 points per game.

St. Louis scored 27 or more points six times in 2013. From 2009-12, the Rams scored 27 or more points on six total occasions in that time span. Prior to this season, the last time the Rams scored 27 or more points in six games in one season was in 2005.

The Rams scored 38 touchdowns last season, which is the most they've scored in a season since the 2006 squad found the end zone 39 times.

Brian Schottenheimer

The team's improved play on offense was in part driven by their young players. Rams rookies accounted for 18 of the team's 38 touchdowns. Second-year players accounted for four additional touchdowns, and the team's third-year pros scored nine others.

ACCESS DENIED

The Rams were one of the best units in the NFL last season when it came to red zone defense.

On the year, opponents scored on 76.7 percent of their trips inside the Rams' 20 yard line, which was the second-lowest total in the NFL.

Opponents scored touchdowns on 51.7 percent of their trips to the St. Louis defensive red zone, which was 11th best in the NFL.

Part of that success came thanks to the Rams' ability to create timely turnovers. St.

CB Trumaine Johnson

Louis forced three turnovers in opponents' goal-to-go situations, which was tied for the most in the NFL in the category. The Rams held the outright lead in red zone takeaways this season with eight. Of the Rams' 14 interceptions this season, seven came in their defensive red zone.

GETTING DEFENSIVE

One of the biggest offseason transactions made by the Rams this spring was the hiring of Defensive Coordinator Gregg Williams.

Williams has presided over five separate top five total defenses during his coaching career: Tennessee Titans (No. 1 in total defense in 2000), Buffalo Bills (No. 3 in 2001 and No. 2 in 2003), Washington Redskins (No. 3 in 2005), and the New Orleans Saints (No. 4 in 2010). As a defensive coordinator or head coach (15 seasons), Williams has coached seven top-ten overall defenses.

Gregg Williams

Williams spent last season in Tennessee, and the Titans made great strides defensively. Tennessee ranked 16th in points per game allowed after finishing last in the NFL in 2012. The Titans improved to 14th in total defense last season after ranking 27th the previous year, were 11th in pass defense after a 26th-place finish in 2012, and Tennessee was 7th in the league in third down defense after ranking 21st a year earlier.

Williams' reputation as a defensive coach was forged in his years with Tennessee, where he served for 11 seasons (1990-2000), including as coordinator over his last four years with the club. Williams worked under Rams Head Coach Jeff Fisher for 6 ½ seasons with the Oilers/Titans.

WAR RAM EAGLE

Last fall, Auburn literally ran its way to an SEC championship and appearance in the national title game. As a team, the Tigers averaged an NCAA-best 328.3 yards per game on the ground. Two of the biggest pieces of that dominant rushing offense are now in St. Louis.

With the second overall pick in May's draft, the Rams selected Greg Robinson, who was Auburn's left tackle and is projected to begin his NFL career at left guard. In 14 games last season, coaches credited Robinson with 130 "knockdown" blocks, an average of more than nine per game as Auburn sparred with some of the best defenses in the country. Robinson was named First-Team All-SEC and was a Second-Team All-American by the Associated Press.

Robinson paved the way for the SEC's leading rusher in Tre Mason, whom the Rams selected in the third round of the draft. Mason finished fifth in the nation with 1,816 rushing yards, and his 23 rushing touchdowns were tied for third most in the country. Mason was the SEC Offensive Player of the Year, was named First-Team All-SEC and was a finalist for the Heisman Trophy.

BULLDOG 'BACKER

The Rams maneuvered throughout the first round of the 2013 draft to accumulate picks and eventually land the players they most coveted. The plan worked to perfection as LB Alec Ogletree remained on the board when St. Louis went on the clock with the 30th pick.

Ogletree, an All-SEC performer at Georgia, stepped into the Rams' starting lineup from the get go and was a playmaker for St. Louis. He led the Rams with 155 tackles and had six forced fumbles, third most in the NFL.

LB Alec Ogletree

He reached double digits in tackles in 10 games last season, including each of the last six.

In the team's Week 6 win at Houston, Ogletree grabbed his first career interception and returned it 98 yards for a touchdown. In the process, he tied the NFL record for longest interception return by a linebacker, and it was the longest return by a rookie linebacker in league history.

TAKE IT AWAY

It's often said that turnover ratio is the most telling stat in football, and that was certainly the case for the Rams in 2013.

In St. Louis' seven wins, the Rams were +17 in turnover ratio. In the team's nine losses, they were -9. The Rams did not win a game this season in which they lost the turnover battle.

LB James Laurinaitis

On the season, the Rams finished +8 in turnover ratio, tied for ninth best in the NFL. They had 29 takeaways as a team, which tied for the 10th most in the league.

The Rams forced turnovers at the most important times this season. Of their 29 takeaways, eight came when their opponents were in the offensive red zone.

In their Week 12 win over Chicago, the Rams forced three turnovers while not committing one offensively. St. Louis was +4 in their Week 10 win over Indianapolis and was +3 in their Week 15 win over New Orleans.

PUSH 'EM BACK

Against both the run and the pass, the Rams were one of the best teams in the NFL at creating negative plays last season.

St. Louis had 127 total negative plays on defense last year, most in the league. Those totals include 72 negative runs by Rams opponents, which was tied for the second most in the league. Of the Rams' 53 sacks, 49 were for loss. In addition, the Rams tackled opponents for loss on six pass plays.

DT Kendall Langford

According to coaches tape, Robert Quinn led the Rams with 18 tackles for loss to go along with his NFC-best 19.0 sacks. LB Alec Ogletree was second with 12, while DT Kendall Langford finished third among Rams with 11 tackles-for-loss.

SACK ATTACK

Once again, the Rams were among the best in the league in 2013 when it came to getting after the quarterback.

Led by an NFC best 19.0 sacks from Pro Bowl DE Robert Quinn, St. Louis finished third in the NFL with 53 on the season. The Rams were second in sacks per pass play.

Since 2010, the Rams have recorded 187 sacks as a team. That's the most in the NFL over that time period. Green Bay ranks second with 167, followed by Miami (166) and Cincinnati (166).

DE Chris Long

This season, 11 different Rams recorded at least one sack, led by Quinn's 19.0. The Rams had five defensive linemen with 5.0 or more sacks.

In 2012, the Rams tied for the NFL lead with 52 sacks on the season and led the league in sacks per pass play as a defense. Long led the way with 11.5 sacks while Quinn had 10.5.

| 2013 NFL Team Sack Leaders | Sacks |
|---|---|
| 1. Carolina Panthers | 60 |
| 2. Buffalo Bills | 57 |
| 3. St. Louis Rams | 53 |
| 4. New Orleans Saints | 49 |
| 5. New England Patriots | 48 |

LUCKY NUMBER 13

With the 13th pick in May's draft, the Rams felt fortunate to land Pittsburgh DT Aaron Donald.

As a senior in 2013, Donald received a host of honors. In addition to being named First-Team All-American and First-Team All-ACC, Donald was the Chuck Bednarik Award and Bronco Nagurski Awards, both of which honor the national defensive player of the year in college football.

Donald also won the Outland Trophy, which goes to college football's top interior lineman, and the Lombardi Award, which recognizes the country's top player among college defensive linemen and linebackers.

Last season, Donald gave opposing offensive linemen fits. He recorded 28.5 tackles for loss, including 11.0 sacks. His tackle for loss total led all college defenders last year.
