

RAMS POSSESS EIGHT PICKS IN 2018 NFL DRAFT

Los Angeles has eight selections in rounds three through six in this year's draft

MORE OR LES ALL-PRO

Since being named the Rams General Manager in 2012, Les Snead has selected 52 players through the NFL Draft. Of the 52 drafted players, a league-best six players have received All-Pro honors.

Eleven percent of draft picks selected by Snead have been named to an All-Pro team, which is the best amongst all NFL general managers since 2012. At least one player from each of Snead's draft classes from 2012-16 have received All-Pro honors at some point during their career.

DT Aaron Donald was named first-team All-Pro three-consecutive seasons from 2015-2017.

Additionally six-of-52 players drafted by Snead have combined for 10 Pro Bowls. The six drafted Pro Bowlers is tied for the third-most by any team in the NFL since 2012, trailing only the Green Bay Packers and Minnesota Vikings, who have each drafted seven players that went on to earn Pro Bowl honors.

Year Drafted	Player	Draft Selection
2012	CB Janoris Jenkins*	2nd Rd, No. 39 overall
2012	K Greg Zuerlein	6th Rd, No. 171 overall
2013	LB Alec Ogletree	1st Rd, No. 30 overall
2014	DT Aaron Donald	1st Rd, No. 13 overall
2015	RB Todd Gurley II	1st Rd, No. 10 overall
2016	Returner Pharoh Cooper	4th Rd, No 117 overall

RAMS, YOU'RE ON THE CLOCK

The Los Angeles Rams hold eight selections in the 2018 NFL Draft, the 82nd draft in franchise history and the 52nd time drafting as the Los Angeles Rams.

General Manager Les Snead is entering his seventh draft guiding the Rams franchise, has eight selections in rounds three through six, including three fourth-round selections and four sixth-round picks.

The first six players selected in the Rams 2017 draft class all started at least one game and the eight-man draft class collectively, combined for 26 starts with S John Johnson III leading the pack with 11 starts as a rookie.

Rams WR Cooper Kupp at the 2017 Rookie Minicamp. Kupp led the Rams in receiving yards and earned PFWA All-Rookie honors.

WR Cooper Kupp, a third-round draft choice, flourished as a rookie leading the team with 869 receiving yards and five touchdowns. The Eastern Washington standout was named to the Pro Football Writers Association All-Rookie Team, becoming only the fourth Rams WR to receive the honor and first rookie since RB Todd Gurley II and T Rob Havenstein made the All-Rookie Team in 2015. Kupp was named the 2017 Carroll Rosenbloom Memorial Award, which is given annually to the Rams rookie of the year.

The 2018 NFL Draft marks the ninth time in franchise history the organization will be without a first-round pick. The Rams have won 10-plus games five of the previous eight seasons in which they did not have a selection in the first round. The Rams have won the division three of those eight seasons. Collectively, L.A. is 72-38-5 in the eight seasons after not selecting in the first round.

NFL DRAFT SET FOR APRIL 26-28

The 2018 NFL Draft will take place at an NFL stadium for the first time, enabling more fans than ever to view their favorite team's selections in-person and enjoy the league's largest free football festival.

The NFL is creating a larger-than-life atmosphere by transforming the areas inside and outside of AT&T Stadium, home of the Dallas Cowboys. The NFL Draft Theater will be built on the stadium's field, creating opportunities for more fans than ever to watch the event live and in-person.

More than 250,000 fans from all 50 states and the District of Columbia have registered over the past month for the chance to win free seated tickets inside the theater. That record-breaking number represents a 50 percent increase over last year and the highest sign-up total for any Draft event over the same time period.

New this year, all 32 teams will send some of their most passionate fans to sit in the "INNER CIRCLE," an exclusive area for select fans to watch the 2018 NFL Draft from seats on the field. This special area features team rivalry zones, chances to celebrate the picks with NFL players and Legends, and opportunities to showcase team spirit on national television.

The 2018 NFL Draft will be televised nationally by NFL Network, ESPN/ESPN 2, FOX and ABC, and can be heard nationwide on Westwood One Radio, SiriusXM NFL Radio and TuneIn Radio.

LOS ANGELES RAMS DRAFT HISTORY

RAMS ROOKIE HONOR ROLL

A total of six Rams players have been awarded either the NFL's Offensive or Defensive Rookie of the Year award and each of the Rams' recipients were drafted in the first round.

In 1971, LB Isiah Robertson became the first Rams rookie in franchise history to win Defensive Rookie of the Year, and the fifth NFL player overall. Los Angeles' ensuing three winners came on the offensive side of the ball and featured Hall of Fame running backs Eric Dickerson (1983) and Jerome Bettis (1993).

With the 13th overall pick in 2014 and the 10th overall pick in 2015, the Rams secured back-to-back Rookie of the Year winners in DT Aaron Donald and RB Todd Gurley, respectively. Los Angeles is the first NFL team to garner consecutive Rookie of the Years since the Carolina Panthers did so in 2011-12 (QB Cam Newton, 2011 OROY and LB Luke Kuechly, 2012 DROY).

NO FIRST, AND 10

Rams Head Coach Sean McVay and General Manager Les Snead

The 2018 NFL Draft marks the 82nd draft for the Rams franchise dating back to the second-ever NFL draft in 1937. The team has not had a first-round selection in only eight of those drafts, most recently in 2017.

The season following a draft in which the team didn't make a selection in the first round, the Rams went on to win at least 10 games on five different occasions (1967, 1968, 1973, 1984, 2017), including three seasons where the Rams claimed the NFC West title (1967, 1973, 2017).

Additionally, five of the franchise's 21 ties have come the season following a draft that the Rams didn't make a first-round selection, including two ties during the 1967 season, one of three seasons that featured two games ending in a draw.

Rams Record and Divisional Finish Following No First Round Draft Picks

Year (Traded to)	Record, Divisional Finish
2018 (choice to New England)	TBD
2017 (choice to Cleveland through Tenn.)	11-5 first in NFC West
1987 (choice to Houston)	6-9, third in NFC West
1984 (choice to Kansas City)	10-6, second in NFC West
1973 (choice to New England)	12-2, first in NFC West
1972 (choice to NY Giants through N.E.)	6-7-1, third in NFC West
1968 (choice to Detroit)	10-3-1, second in NFC West
1967 (choice to Minnesota)	11-1-2, first in NFC West
1948 (choice to Detroit)	6-5-1, third in Western Conference

In total, the Rams are 72-38-5 (.647) all-time the season after not selecting in the first round of that year's draft.

DRAFT DAY IN L.A.

The Los Angeles Rams made major moves in each of their first two drafts in the City of Angels, as the 1946 NFL Draft and the 2016 NFL Draft each proved to be memorable ones.

The 1946 NFL Draft included historical milestone selections of halfback Kenny Washington and end Woody Strode, the first African-American players in the modern NFL, one year before Jackie Robinson broke the baseball color barrier with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

In the 2016 NFL Draft, the Rams made a blockbuster trade to acquire the No. 1 overall pick to select QB Jared Goff.

Kenny Washington of the University of California at Los Angeles, signs a contract to play with the Los Angeles Rams with Rams general manager Charles F. Walsh, right, watching, March 23, 1946.

The Rams' draft classes boast nine Hall of Famers in QB Norm Van Brocklin (1949), DE Andy Robustelli (1951), LB Les Richter (1954), DE Deacon Jones (1961), DT Merlin Olsen (1962), G Tom Mack (1966), DE Jack Youngblood (1971), T Jackie Slater (1976), RB Eric Dickerson (1983) and T Orlando Pace (1997).

SNEAD'S FIRST-ROUND SWAPS

The 2018 draft marks the fifth time the Snead administration has executed a trade in or out of the first round. Here is a look back at the previous first-round moves since Snead took over as the Rams General Manager in 2012.

2012 NFL Draft

The Rams held the No. 2 overall selection and traded it to the Washington Redskins. In that trade, the Rams acquired Washington's sixth and 39th overall selections in 2012, as well as their first round picks in 2013 (DT Michael Brockers via Dallas) and 2014 (T Greg Robinson).

2013 NFL Draft

On the first day of the draft, the Rams executed two trades in the first round. The Rams held the No. 16 overall selection and traded up to No. 8 with the Buffalo Bills to select WR Tavon Austin, and picked up the Bills' 71st selection. In exchange, the Bills received the Rams No. 16, 46, 78 and 222 selections.

Also in the first round of the 2013 draft, the Rams held the No. 22 overall selection (via the 2012 trade with the Redskins) and traded back with Atlanta at No. 30 to select LB Alec Ogletree. The Falcons also received the Rams seventh-round pick (from New England). In exchange, the Rams, received the No. 30, 92 and 198 selections.

2016 NFL Draft

The Rams negotiated a trade with the Titans to receive the No. 1 overall pick, as well as their 2016 fourth-round (No. 113) and sixth-round (No. 177) selections. Tennessee received the Rams' first-round selection (No. 15), two second-round picks (Nos. 43, 45), and a third-round pick (No. 76) in 2016. In the 2017 draft, the Titans received the Rams' first and third-round selections.

2018 NFL Draft

L.A. didn't wait around until draft night to acquire offensive fire power, as the team agreed to terms to acquire WR Brandin Cooks from the New England Patriots on April 3. The Rams received Cooks and New England's No. 136 overall pick in the fourth round in exchange for the Rams' No. 23 overall pick and No. 198 overall in the sixth round in the 2018 NFL Draft.

L.A. RAMS CELEBRATE THE DRAFT

The Los Angeles Rams will kick off Draft weekend on Wednesday, April 25 with a pre-Draft roundtable featuring Rams Head Coach Sean McVay, GM Les Snead, and G Jamon Brown, OLB Samson Ebukam, QB Jared Goff, S John Johnson III and T Andrew Whitworth. Actor and director Taran Killam will host the discussion, which will be streamed live at 8 PM PT on the Rams Twitter and Facebook channels, therams.com and the Rams Mobile App.

On Thursday, April 26, during Night 1 of the NFL Draft, the Rams will work with four local establishments to support their celebrations of the NFL Draft at the following locations.
