Rams Travel to Minnesota in NFC Clash

WR Cooper Kupp comes down with a big third down catch against Seattle.

Minneapolis, Minn. - The Rams (10-4) will travel north for a match-up against the Minnesota Vikings (7-7) on a short week following the team's week 15 victory against the Seahawks on Tuesday. This will be the third time in the Head Coach Sean McVay era that the two franchises will lineup against each other. In the last meeting on Sept 27. 2018, the Rams defeated the Vikings 38-31 at home.

Week 15 brought the Seattle Seahawks to SoFi Stadium on a Tuesday night. This was a historical game as it was the 12th time an NFL game has been played on a Tuesday in the league's 102-year existence. It also was the first Tuesday night game ever played in SoFi Stadium. The Rams executed in all three phases finishing the game with a 20-10 victory.

QB Matthew Stafford led the charge under center, completing 21-of-29 passing attempts for 244 yards to seven different targets; This performance made Stafford the fastest quarterback to reach 50,000 passing yards in NFL history (both regular season and postseason games included). It also was another historical game for WR Cooper Kupp as he broke the Rams record for catches in one season (122 in 14 games) with his nine receptions for 136 yards. Kupp extended his streak of more than 90 receiving yards to 10 games, setting an NFL record. The two Rams touchdowns of the night both came from a Stafford-Kupp connection. In total, the Rams rushed for 123 yards on 29 carries.

DL Aaron Donald got his 15th career sack on Seahawks QB Russell Wilson, and his 11th of the season. Wilson was sacked two other times by OLB Leonard Floyd and OLB Von Miller, which was his first sack as a Ram. To seal the game, S Taylor Rapp made an interception in the Seahawks endzone.

Minnesota defeated Chicago 17-9 on Monday night. WR Justin Jefferson moved into second in the NFL for receiving yards with 1,335 yards on the year. This week he will face WR number one in Cooper Kupp.

With a Rams victory in Minneapolis on Sunday, the Rams can clinch a playoff spot. This would be McVay's fourth playoff appearance in his five year career as the Rams Head Coach.

RAMdom Fact

WR Cooper Kupp is first in the NFL in receiving yards this season with 1,625 yards. Vikings WR Justin Jefferson is currently second behind him with 1,335 yards receiving. The two will face off this week as the Rams travel to Minnesota.

What to Watch For

• Rams WR Cooper Kupp needs 268 yards to break the NFL record for receiving yards through 15 games.

• QB Matthew Stafford is 74 career regular season passing yards away from moving into 12th all-time. He currently has 49,251 yards through 179 regular season games and 12th is occupied by Warren Moon who threw for 49,325 yards over 208 regular season games.

• The Rams offense has created 10 plays of 50+ yards this season. L.A. is the only team with more than 7 through Week 15.

• Rams DL Aaron Donald has 2.5 career sacks against Vikings QB Kirk Cousins. Donald only has more sacks against nine other QBs in his career.

History Lesson

QB Kurt Warner led the Rams over the Vikings en route to the franchises sole Super Bowl win.

The Los Angeles Rams have played the Minnesota Vikings seven times in the playoffs, with the most recent time being 22 years ago when the teams met in the Divisional Round in 1999. The Vikings seven playoff games against the Rams are the second-highest amount of playoff matchups with one team in franchise history. Only the Dallas Cowboys have seen the Rams more in the playoffs (nine games).

That last game in the Divisional Round of the 1999 postseason (game played on Jan. 16, 2000) took place at the TWA Dome in St. Louis, Mo. With a 49-37 home win, the Rams progressed to the NFC Championship, and eventually all the way through the playoffs, winning their first and only Super Bowl against the Tennessee Titans.

In the first quarter, the Rams came out firing and scored two touchdowns. QB Kurt Warner launched a 77-yard TD pass to WR Isaac Bruce for six followed by an extra point by K Jeff Wilkins. Then less than five minutes later, Warner threw a 41-yard TD pass to RB Marshall Faulk. The Rams finished the first quarter with at 14-3 lead.

Right out of halftime, WR Tony Horne took the opening second half kick to the house on a 95-yard kickoff return. That return was followed by two more touchdowns in the third quarter. The Rams dominated on defense in the third quarter, not allowing the Vikings to put points on the board.

Overall defensively, the Rams recorded four sacks, 79 tackles, one interception and 10 tackles for loss in the game. The defense complimented “The Greatest Show on Turf.”

The 49 points for the Rams led to their highest scoring performance of the Super Bowl run.

It's a Brand New Day with Gay

The Rams moved onto K Matt Gay in Week 11 of the 2020 season against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Since then, they have not looked back, and Gay has been the lone starter. In that span, he is top four in multiple kicking categories including most FGs made, most FGs of 40+ yards made, and FG percentage on kicks 50+ yards. This Week it was annouced that Gay was voted into the 2021 Pro Bowl.

Honor Roll

The Rams have already won five NFC Player of the Week/Month awards this season. It began with QB Matthew Stafford taking home NFC Offensive Player of the Week in Week 1, after he threw for 321 yards on 20 of 26 passing attempts. He had three TDs, 0 interceptions and a near perfect passer rating of 156.1 in the win. Then in Week 3 Stafford won the award again. This time Stafford threw for 343 yards, four TDs, 0 interceptions on 27 of 38 passing, as the Rams outdueled QB Tom Brady and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Stafford's two NFC Off. Player of the Week awards in September were largely in thanks to WR Cooper Kupp's play during the month. Kupp led the NFL in receptions (25), yards (367), TDs (5), and yards per game (122.3). Kupp was recognized for his production and awarded NFC Off. Player of the Month for September 2021. Kupp kept up his pace in October, recording 38 catches for 557 yards and five TDs and was recognized as NFC Off. Player of the Month for the second straight month.

On the other side of the ball, S Taylor Rapp showed out during a Week 6 victory in New York. Rapp made four tackles, two interceptions, three pass break-ups and one QB hit, and was awarded Week 6 NFC Defensive Player of the Week.

Success In The West

Under Head Coach Sean McVay, the Rams are 19-10 in the regular season against NFC West opponents. L.A. is 9-1 against the Arizona Cardinals and have outscored them 301-151. L.A. has outscored NFC West foes, 782-588, through McVay's first 29 regular season divisional games.

The Rams finished 6-0 in the NFC West during the 2018 season. The last time an NFC West team accomplished the feat was the Cardinals in 2008. It marked the first time the Rams swept the NFC West since 1999. The Rams also posted 30-plus points against all three of their divisional opponents during the 2018 season. The 2002 Rams were previously the last team to accomplish that feat.

The Rams entered Week 17 of the 2017 season with a two-game lead in the NFC West and an 11-4 record when they decided to rest their starters against the 49ers. The Rams outscored their divisional opponents, 171-112, during the 2017 season, which was a 59-point differential. It was the highest positive point differential in the division for the Rams since 2001, when the Rams outscored their divisional opponents, 274-160, for a 114-point differential. The 2001 Rams played in a five team-division and therefore had eight divisional games that season.

Rams Offensive Team Notes

Air It Out

On August 12, 2021 before this season began, Head Coach Sean McVay spoke about his comfort with the current roster's ability to stretch the field saying, "Our team has a lot of players that can make plays downfield."

The addition of QB Matthew Stafford to the existing Rams offense has the Rams aimed for a high frequency of passes. Through 14 games Stafford already has the Rams third in the NFL with 57 completions of over 20-yards, to eight different receivers.

Rams WR Van Jefferson has been a deep threat all season, dating back to the Rams third offensive snap of the season. Jefferson has four receptions of 50 or more yards, the first coming against Chicago in Week 1 when QB Matthew Stafford hit Jefferson for a 67-yard TD on his first drive as a Rams QB. In Week 8 Jefferson had another, this time 68-yard reception that took the Rams to Houston's 11-yardline. Week 12 in Green Bay saw his career long, a 79-yard TD reception on third and eight. Then Week 14 was his most recent, a 52-yard TD catch that he caught at the one-yard line. Jefferson is tied for second in the NFL with four receptions for 50 or more yards.

Receiver Notes

Cooper (5K)upp

During Week 14, Rams WR Cooper Kupp passed 5,000 career receiving yards with his 123-yard performance. Kupp became just the fifth Rams WR to reach 5,000 yards and now sits at 5,195 yards. Kupp's 136 yards during Week 15 made it his 10th straight game with 90 or more receiving yards, a new NFL record. Kupp also set a Rams franchise record in single season receptions with 122 and he still has three games left in the regular season to add on.

Receiving Rave Reviews

The Los Angeles Rams receiving corps consisting of WR Cooper Kupp, WR Van Jefferson, WR Odell Beckham Jr., WR Ben Skowronek, and TE Tyler Higbee has proven to be one of the deepest in the league, even with the loss of WR Robert Woods to a torn ACL. The Rams are top five in the NFL in many receiving categories including receiving yards, receiving TDs, and receiving first downs.

Building Off Year One

Rams WR Van Jefferson has already surpassed his year one totals in four major statistical categories for WRs just 14 games into year two. Jefferson already has more than double the receptions, targets, yards, and TDs than he had all of his rookie season. He also had his career long TD reception in Week 12, as he caught a 79-yard TD from QB Matthew Stafford.

Rams Defensive Team Notes

Morris Code

With the addition of Defensive Coordinator Raheem Morris this past offseason, the Rams adopted a new defensive code. Morris measures the success of his defense with “Make-A-Difference” (M.A.D.) plays. M.A.D. plays are measured by making interceptions, forcing and recovering fumbles, and other momentum-shifting plays. Winning the turnover battle through M.A.D. plays is the Rams’ code to success.

The Rams are averaging 1.4 turnovers a game, leaving them with 20 turnovers so far in the 2021 season.

Defensive Coordinator Raheem Morris

Bad to the Bone

Through the entire 2021 NFL season, there have been 29,628 tackles made. All 32 teams have played 14 games heading into Week 16. The Rams have account for 974 of those tackles.

In 2020, when the Rams played 16 regular season games, the defense amassed 1,004 tackles. Currently, Defensive Coordinator Raheem Morris' defense is on pace to surpass that.

First Quarter Focus

The Rams allowed only 66 first quarter points during the 2020 regular season, including a shutout of the Dallas Cowboys in Week 1, the New York Giants in Week 4, the Chicago Bears in Week 7, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in Week 11, the New England Patriots in Week 14, and the Seattle Seahawks in Week 16. In 2020, the Rams had an eight-game regular season streak where the team did not allow more than three points in the first quarter of the game.

The team has stayed focused in the first quarter during the 2021 season. Through 14 games, only the Lions (10) and 49ers (14) have scored more than seven points in the first quarter against the Rams. A redzone interception on the first drive of the season kept the Chicago Bears scoreless. The following two drives for the Bears ended after failed conversions on fourth-and-four each time. Week 2 was another scoreless first quarter for the Rams D. In Week 3, the Buccaneers were forced to punt three straight times. Week 4, the defense finally allowed a second drive touchdown to Cardinals QB Kyler Murray and the Arizona Cardinals, breaking the season-long first quarter scoreless streak for the Rams. Week 5 in Seattle both teams were shutout in the first quarter. When the Rams traveled to New York for Week 6, the Giants were able to get a field goal to start the game, but no points followed. Week 7 saw the Lions get a first drive TD after Lions RB D'Andre Swift broke off a screen for a 63-yard score. Then after a recovered onside kick a Lions FG followed on the second drive. Week 8 saw the Rams shutout Houston until the fourth quarter. In Week 9, Tennessee was shutout in the first quarter. In Week 10, San Francisco scored two first-quarter touchdowns. After the bye, Green Bay scored one TD in the first quarter. The Rams kept Jacksonville scoreless in the first quarter during Week 13. While in Arizona, the Rams held the Cardinals to three points in the first quarter. After being postponed until Tuesday, the Rams dialed in and did not allow the Seahawks to score in the first quarter in Week 15.

Sack Monsters

Landing amonst the top of the sack leaderboard as a team, the Rams defense is bound to have some sack monsters prowling the field. OLB Leonard Floyd and DL Aaron Donald are amongst the top 15 in terms of sacks in the 2021 regular season. Only two other teams can claim to have two top-15 sack monsters on their defenses (Arizona and Carolina).

Rams Defensive Team Notes

It's a Rapp

S Taylor Rapp has set a career-high of three interceptions during the 2021 season. He had one interception in 2020 and two his rookie year in 2019. In the five games that Rapp has had an interception, the Rams were victorious.

Rapp's first two interceptions of the 2021 season came in Week 6 when the Rams were on the road in New York playing the Giants. Both of those interceptions created touchdown opportunities for the Rams offense. His second interception of the game came near the two-minute mark of the third quarter. That interception led to an offensive touchdown which put the Rams ahead 38-3 starting the fourth quarter.

Fast forward to Week 15 when Rapp made a late game interception in the Seahawks' endzone allowing the Rams offense to come on the field and run the clock down. That "make-a-difference" play helped seal the deal in the Rams 20-10 victory over Seattle.

Minimizing Yards

When it comes to minimizing opponents' yardage, the Rams know a thing or two about how to do that. Last season, the Rams finished first in the NFL averaging fewest yards allowed per play. Rams opponents averaged 4.56 yards per play.

This year, with new Defensive Coordinator Raheem Morris and some fresh personnel, the Rams still rank within the top five. Not only do the Rams rank within the top five in the NFL, but they are the second best team in the NFC when it comes to minimizing opponents' yardage.

Distrupting Air Raids

The Rams land near the top of the leaderboard in almost every category when it comes to pass coverage. For opponents percentage of pass attempts that are intercepted, the Rams defense ranks seventh in the NFL. Roughly, every 29 passing attempts made by a Rams' opponent is picked off.

Respectful Ratings

Passer rating is reflective of passing attempts, completions, yards, touchdowns, and interceptions. While the Rams have one of the top five quarterbacks in terms of passer rating (#2 - Matthew Stafford, 108.2), the Rams defense has applied the pressure to opposing quarterbacks. The average passer rating in the NFL through Week 15 is 92.4. Through 14 games, Rams opponents' passer rating is 83.1.

Being at the top of the leaderboard is not new territory for the Rams defense. The Rams finished the 2020 regular season second behind the Pittsburgh Steelers in this category with opponents' passer rating totaling 80.4.

Talking Tackles For Loss

Rams DL Aaron Donald has used an explosive first step to make a living in opponents' backfields since entering the league in 2014. Since the start of the 2014 season, Donald leads the league in tackles for loss, tallying 145 in 124 games played, including 14 TFLs during the 2021 regular season.

DL Aaron Donald and crew get a TFL

Last season, Donald tallied 14 TFLs during the regular season. Donald recorded a league-best 20 tackles for loss during the 2019 season. The Pitt product finished first in the NFL with 25 tackles for loss during the 2018 regular season. Donald posted 15 TFLs in 14 games during the 2017 season. The 15 TFLs was tied for the ninth-most last season and the most by an interior defensive lineman. Donald recorded a then career-high 22 tackles for loss in his second season in the NFL in 2015.

Von Miller Notes

Leader of the Sack

Sacks became an official statistic in 1982. Since the Head Coach Sean McVay era in Los Angeles, the Rams have amassed 231.0 sacks. Only the Pittsburgh Steelers have more sacks in that period, 259.0.

The Rams are eager to add to that number by acquiring the NFL's active sack leader, OLB Von Miller. Miller comes to the Rams with 111.5 career sacks. He sits at first with a 5.0 cushion.

Miller recorded his first sack as a Ram in SoFi Stadium on Tuesday Night Football against the Seahawks.

Von Miller Traded To Los Angeles

On Monday November 1st, 2021 the Los Angeles Rams traded their 2022 second round and third round picks to the Denver Broncos for LB Von Miller. The trade came just a week to the day after trading LB Kenny Young to Denver. The Rams acquired one of the top linebackers of the past decade. A Super Bowl Champion, Super Bowl MVP, and 23rd all-time on the NFL career sack list (110.5 sacks) LB Von Miller has plenty of accolades to his resume.

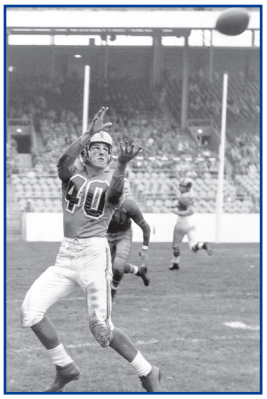
Crazylegs Consent

LB Von Miller had to make a decision when coming to Los Angeles. What jersey number would he chose? Miller had worn No. 58 his entire career in Denver, but Rams LB Justin Hollins currently dons number 58. In college at Texas A&M, Miller wore No. 40, so this history spurred him to ring in a new portion of his career with a familiar number.



Elroy 'Crazylegs' Hirsch for Rams

There was only one problem, No. 40 was worn by former Ram Elroy "Crazylegs" Hirsch (1949-1957), a College Football and Pro Football Hall of Famer. While Hirsch's number wasn't officially retired with the Rams, the last player to wear the number on a Rams jersey was DB Jack Morris (1958-1960) over the following three seasons after Hirsch left. Thus, Miller decided to ask for permission to wear the number from the Hirsch family and was granted their blessing.

Hirsch also served on the Rams staff from 1960 through 1968, beginning as General Manager for three seasons and transitioning to Assistant to the President from 1963 through 1968. Hirsch drafted players such as QB Roman Gabriel, DE Deacon Jones, and DT Merlin Olsen.
